WISEWAYS HERBALS creates over unique products for natural and medicinal body care. We offer the following for pregnancy, birth, women and children's health care.

We grow many of the herbs we use in our products from the beautiful New England countryside. We never use herbs that have been treated with preservatives or chemicals. We love animals and never test on them -- we personally test all our products.

The use of healing plants in their pure and natural state enhances your health and well-being. Mariam Massaro, founder of WiseWays Herbals, is an herbalist and former midwife. Her experience includes natural health care, education, bioenergetic healing, organic gardening and living amidst the peaceful surroundings of nature with inspiration from the angelic and elemental kingdoms.

Blessings to all.
